On December 21, 2021 at approximately 12 PM, Manchester Police responded to 178 Central St for a report of someone threatening a male with a knife.

Police maintained a perimeter around the address and made announcements into the apartment, ordering people to come outside. A man and woman left through a back door without incident, but a third person refused to come out.

Police learned that the man inside had gotten into an altercation with another man. He was yelling and damaging things inside the apartment. During the course of the incident, he pulled out a knife and threatened the other man.

SWAT personnel were deployed and announcements continued. Soon after, the suspect, identified as 36 year old Khamin Todd of Manchester was taken into custody. Todd was charged with Criminal Threatening with a Deadly Weapon, Felon in Possession of a Dangerous Weapon, Resisting Arrest, and Criminal Mischief. Todd was also found to have an active arrest warrant for a parole violation.
